

Printable One-Page Course Description

Course Information

Course Title: German Language (SmarterGerman)

Provider: SmarterGerman (online course)

Level Range: Beginner through Advanced (CEFR A1–C1)

Format: Self-paced online instruction with guided practice

Prerequisites: None for A1. Prior knowledge recommended for higher starting levels.

Course Description

This course provides structured instruction in German. It covers vocabulary, grammar, listening, reading, and written production. Students progress through a defined sequence of lessons and review material systematically. The course can be used as a stand-alone foreign language credit within a homeschool program.

Instructional Materials

- SmarterGerman online lessons and exercises
- Built-in practice activities and review tools
- Optional external materials chosen by the family (e.g., graded readers, writing prompts, speaking practice)

Learning Outcomes (examples)

A1/A2: Basic everyday communication, predictable situations, foundational grammar

B1: Longer descriptions and opinions, travel situations, improved comprehension

B2: Complex texts and discussions, clearer argumentation, stronger accuracy

C1: Advanced comprehension and production for academic/professional contexts

Suggested Documentation

Choose what your program expects:

- Hours log (engaged study time) OR
- List of completed units/levels and materials used
- Samples: short writing pieces, vocabulary logs, or speaking checkpoints

Assessment (parent-chosen)

Parents may assign grades based on completion, quiz performance, writing samples, oral summaries, or periodic self-tests. SmarterGerman does not issue grades or credits.